Press release: What a season 2011 has been!! CGRT added riders Jessie Grummett and “Giant Killer” Ben Rego to the roster and an increased support program from many great sponsors and the results have been great! The Royal Distributing Canadian Enduro Championships concluded this past weekend at Motopark, near Owen Sound, Ontario.

Jessie finished the season with a 6th place overall in the A class, with 4th and a 5th place finishes in Motopark. Jessie improved steadily through the season and made the transition to the FX 450 from his 125 2 stroke easily, “the bike was awesome, very happy with it, no problems at all.”

Team Manager Lee Fryberger concluded the series with another set of 2nd place finishes in the Vet Pro class. His FE 570 was a monster in the tight confines of the enduro test, but “I had fun, even though this white man can’t jump, I loved the moto test, great weekend, great season! I wanted the top step on the Championship, but I missed the first round, Scott Kinakin and his KTM were too fast for me everywhere else.” Despite missing round one, Lee finished the season 2nd place Vet Pro.

Cole Dobovich is coming into his own, the 17 year old won both days at Motopark on his FX 450, riding very well in all the tests. With two 2nd place finishes and two wins, Cole wrapped up the Royal Distributing Canadian Enduro Championship Amateur A Class Championship!!! The west rounds didn’t go so well for him, with a 10th at the first round and broken engine case at the 4th round, he lacked points coming east to challenge the National Amateur A Championship, where he finished 3rd place on the season. Great effort Cole!

The man once known as “The Giant Killer”, Ben Rego has made the transition from hunter to the hunted. Ben finished the weekend with 4th place finishes, cementing his 3rd place in the Royal Distributing Canadian Enduro Championships E2 class and 4th place overall for the series!! For a man who was unknown in 2009 and today on the Pro podium, CGRT is proud!! “The bike works amazing, it handles really good, and I can’t thank our sponsors enough for their great support through the season, couldn’t have done it without them” stated the quiet man from Kitimatt, BC.

With the nationals complete, CGRT is looking forward to action from Ben and Shane Cuthbertson and his TE300 at the remaining rounds of the US Endurocross Series. Good luck fellas!!! For more on CGRT, www.cornergrass.com.
